Assumption of Risk Statement

I (We), the undersigned, am (are) about to take a camping and/or canoeing trip in the Maine woods and on the Maine inland waters with Theodore (Ted) P O'Brien.

I (We), understand that such a trip involves considerable risk of injury or loss (including but not limited to: loss of property or life from overturned or swamped canoes which may result from many different causes such as inexperience in handling a canoe, hazardous white water, illness from drinking untreated water, exertion from paddling and portages, motor vehicle accident in transit, hypothermia from immersion in cold water, injuries due to rough terrain, lightening, cold weather, hot weather, lack of communication, or unavailability of early medical treatment).

As part of the consideration for the services to be rendered, I (We), the undersigned, and on behalf of ourselves, family, heirs, personal representatives, and minor members of our family accompanying us, further release and hold harmless, Theodore (Ted) P. O'Brien, his agents, employees, associates, and family from any and all liability, causes of his actions, claims, and demands which may arise out of this expedition.

I (We) have read this agreement and understand its content and purpose. After full consideration of all the above, I (We) hereby assume all risks of injury or loss which I (We) might suffer during the above canoe camping trip or any other activity to be arranged or to be taken with Theodore (Ted) O'Brien.
